

Privacy Notice

Notice of Privacy Practices as Required by the Privacy Regulations Promulgated Pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPPA)

This notice describes how health information about you may be used and disclosed, and how you can get access to your identification health information.

Our Commitment to Your Privacy

- Our organization is dedicated to maintaining the privacy of your identifiable health information. In conducting our business, we will create records regarding you and the treatment and services we provide to you. We are required by law to maintain the confidentiality of health information that identifies you. We also are required by law to provide you with this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices concerning your identifiable health information. By law, we must follow the terms of the notice of privacy practices that we have in effect at the time.

To summarize, this notice provides you with the following important information:

- How we may use and disclose your identifiable health information.
- Your privacy rights in your identifiable health information.
- Our obligations concerning the use and disclosure of your identifiable health information.

The terms of this notice apply to all records containing your identifiable health information that are created or retained by our practice. We reserve the right to revise or amend our notice of privacy practices. Any revision or amendment to this notice will be effective for all of your records our practice has created or maintained in the past, and for any of your records we may create or maintain in the future. Our organization will post a copy of our current notice in our offices in a prominent location, and you may request a copy of our most current notice during any home visit.

If you have any questions about this notice, please contact The Administrator of AFTER THE FALL at (877) 880-4283.

We May Use and Disclose Your Health Information in the Following Ways:

The following categories describe the different ways in which we may use and disclose your identifiable health information.

- A. Treatment. Our organization may use your identifiable health information to treat you. After we receive an order/prescription to deliver equipment/supplies to you we may inform you that laboratory testing may need to be performed to establish a proper diagnosis appropriate for the services/equipment rendered if testing information was not available at the time services were requested. If testing information is available through an independent laboratory or a hospital it may need to be forward to us to establish qualifying results and diagnosis. May of the people who work for our organization may use or disclose your identifiable health information in order to treat you or to assist others in your treatment. Additionally, we may disclose your identifiable health information to others that may assist in your care, such as your physician, therapists, spouse, children, or parents.
- B. Payment. Our organization may use and disclose your identifiable health information in order to bill and collect payment for the services and items you may receive from us. For example, we may contact your health insurer to certify that you are eligible for benefits (and for what range of benefits), and we may provide your insurer with details regarding your treatment to determine if your insurer will cover, or pay for your treatment. We also may use and disclose your identifiable health information to obtain payment from third parties that may be responsible for such costs, such as family members. Also, we may use your identifiable health information to bill you directly for services and items.
- C. Health Care Operations. Our organization may use and disclose your identifiable health information to operate our business. As examples of the ways in which we may use and disclose your information for our operations, our organization may use your health information to evaluate the quality of care you received from us, or to conduct cost-management and business planning activities for our practice.
- D. Appointment Reminders. Our organization may use and disclose your identifiable health information to contact you and remind you of visits/deliveries.
- E. Release of Information to Family/Friends. Our organization may release your identifiable health information to a friend or family member that is helping you pay for your health care, or who assist in taking care of you.
- F. Disclosures Required by Law. Our organization will use and disclose your identifiable health information when we are required to do so by federal, state, or local law.

Use and disclosure of Your Identifiable Health Information in Certain Special Circumstances

The following categories describe unique scenarios in which we may use or disclose your identifiable health information.

- A. Public Health Risks. Our organization may disclose your identifiable health information to public health authorities that are authorized by law to collect information for the purpose of: Maintain vital records, such as births and deaths, Reporting child abuse or neglect, Preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability, Notifying a person regarding potential exposure to a communicable disease, Notifying a person regarding a potential risk for spreading or contracting a disease or condition Reporting reactions to drugs or problems with products or devices, Notifying appropriate government agency(ies) and authority(ies) regarding the potential abuse or neglect of an adult patient (including domestic violence); however, we will only disclose this information if the patient agrees or we are required or authorized by law to disclose this information. Notifying your employer under limited circumstances related primarily to a workplace injury or illness or medical surveillance.
- B. Health Oversight Activities. Our organization may disclose your identifiable health information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. Oversight activities can include, for example, investigations, inspections, audits, surveys, licensure and disciplinary actions; civil, administrative, and criminal procedures or action; or other activities necessary for the government to monitor government programs, compliance with civil rights laws and the health care system in general.
- C. Lawsuits and Similar Proceedings. Our organization may use and disclose your identifiable health information in response to a court or administrative, if you are involved in a lawsuit or similar proceeding. We also may disclose your identifiable health information in response to a discovery requires, subpoena, or other lawful process by another party involved in the dispute, but only if we have made an effort to inform you of the request or to obtain an order protecting the information the party has requested.

- D. Law Enforcement. We may release identifiable health information if asked to do so by law enforcement official: Regarding a crime victim in certain situations, if we are unable to obtain the person's agreement, Concerning a death we believe might have resulted from criminal conduct, Regarding criminal conduct at our offices, In response to a warrant, summons court order, subpoena or similar legal process, To identify/locate a suspect, material witnesses fugitive or missing person, In an emergency, to report a crime (including the location or victim of the crime, or the description, identity or location of the perpetrator.)
- E. Serious Threats to Health and Safety. Our organization may use and disclose your identifiable health information when necessary to reduce or prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of another individual or the public. Under these circumstances, we will only make disclosure to a person or organization able to help prevent the threat.
- F. Military. Our organization may disclose your identifiable health information if you are a member of US or foreign military forces (including veterans) and if required by the appropriate military command authorities.
- G. National Security. Our organization may disclose your identifiable health information to federal officials for intelligence and national security activities authorized by law. We also may disclose your identifiable health information to federal officials in order to protect the President, other officials or foreign heads of state, or to conduct investigations.
- H. Inmates. Our organization may disclose your identifiable health information to correctional institutions or law enforcement officials if you are an inmate or under the custody of a law enforcement official, Disclosure for these purposes would be necessary: (a) or the institution to provide health care services to you, (b) for the safety and security of the institution, and/or (c) to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of similar programs.
- I. Worker's Compensation. Our organization may release your identifiable health information for workers' compensation and similar programs.

Your Rights Regarding Your Identifiable Health Information

- A. Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that our organization communicate with you about you and your health and related issues in a particular manner or at a certain location. For instance, you may ask that we contact you at home, rather than work. In order to request a type of confidential communication, you must make a written request to the administrator or office to contact for further information specifying the requested method of contact, or the location where you wish to be contacted. Our organization will accommodate reasonable requests. You do not need to give a reason for your request.
- B. Requesting Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction in our use or disclosure of your identifiable health information for treatment, payment or health care operations. Additionally, you have the right to request that we limit our disclosure of your identifiable health information to individuals involved in your care or the payment for your care, such a family member or friends. We are not required to agree to your request; however if we do agree we are bound by our agreement except when otherwise required by law, in emergencies, or when the information is necessary to treat to you. In order to request a restriction in our use or disclosure of your identifiable health information, you must make your request in writing to the Administrator of AFTER THE FALL. Your request must describe in a clear and concise fashion: (a) the information you wish restricted; (b) whether you are requesting to limit our practices use, disclosure or both; and (c) to whom you want the limits to apply.
- C. Inspection and Copies. You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of the identifiable health information that may be used to make decisions about you, including patient medical records and billing records, but not including psychotherapy notes. You must submit your request in writing to the administrator of AFTER THE FALL in order to inspect and/or obtain a copy of your identifiable health information. Our organization may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing, labor and supplies associated with your request. Our practice may deny your request to inspect and/or copy in certain limited circumstance; however, you may request a review of our denial. Reviews will be conducted by another licensed health care professional chosen by us.
- D. Amendment. You may ask us to amend your health information if you believe it is incorrect or incomplete, and you may request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by or for our organization. To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing and submitted to the administrator of AFTER THE FALL at (877) 880-4283. You must provide us with a reason that supports your request for amendment. Our organization will deny your request if you fail to submit your request (and the reason supporting your request) in writing. Also, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that is (a) accurate and complete; (b) not part of the identifiable health information kept by or for the organization; (c) not part of the identifiable health information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or (d) not created by our organization, unless the individual or entity that created the information is not available to amend the information.
- E. Accounting of Disclosures. All of our patients have the right to request an "accounting of disclosures". An "accounting of disclosures" is a list of certain disclosures our organization is made of your identifiable health information. In order to obtain an accounting of disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to the administrator of AFTER THE FALL at (877) 880-4283. All requests for an "accounting of disclosure" must state a time period that may not be longer than six years and may not include dates of service before April 14, 2003. The first list you request within a 12-month period is free of charge, but our practice may charge you for additional lists within the same 12-month period. Our organization will notify you of the costs involved with additional requests, and you may withdraw your request before you incur any costs.
- F. Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice. You are entitled to receive a paper copy of our notice of privacy practices. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time. To obtain a paper copy of this notice, contact the administrator of AFTER THE FALL at (877) 880-4283 for further information.
- G. Right to File a Complaint. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with our organization or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. To file a complaint with our organization, contact the Administrator of AFTER THE FALL at (877) 880-4283. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint. All complaints must be submitted in writing.
- H. Right to provide an authorization for other uses and disclosures. Our organization will obtain your written authorization for uses and disclosures that are not identified by these notices or permitted by applicable law. Any authorization you provide to us regarding the use and disclosure of your identifiable health information may be revoked at any time in writing. After you revoke your authorization, we will no longer use or disclose your identifiable health information for the reasons described in the authorization. Please not, we are required to retain records of your care.